

The Boulder Institute of Microfinance, in partnership with the Capacity Building in Rural Finance (CABFIN) Partnership, is pleased to announce its first Online Masterclass series “Digital Transformation of Rural and Agricultural Finance,” featuring sector leaders who will present their experience and concrete cases on the following topics:

- Digitalizing rural and agricultural finance;
- Challenges with digitalizing field staff;
- Fostering the use of a digital payments eco-system in rural areas; and
- Digital platforms in agriculture and access to finance.

In each session, the program will incorporate interactive discussions in breakout sessions to build on the common experiences of our participants who are usually already profoundly engaged themselves in these issues. The online program will take place on January, 19, 21, and 26, 2021 and will be offered in English.

Boulder Programs constitute an unparalleled online opportunity for professionals in the financial inclusion sector to come together to exchange views, share experiences, learn more about current trends in financial inclusion, listen to experts in the field of financial inclusion industry, pioneers and thought leaders and network with other rural and agricultural finance, microfinance and inclusion professionals from around the world.
